REMARKS

All of the pending claims were allowed in the above-captioned application on December 9, 2010. Applicant paid the issue fee on January 26, 2011, but Applicant has since found a number of clerical, typographical and/or minor errors in the claims requiring amendment. As such, Applicant has concurrently filed a Petition Under 37 CFR 1.313(c) to withdraw the application from issue so that the errors may be amended.

All of the amendments are clerical, typographical or minor in nature and do not introduce new matter.

In the amendment to claim 31, at line 7 thereof the phrase "construction apparatus" has been amended to read "stabilizer apparatus" to be consistent with the previously amended preamble.

Also in claim 31, in the next to last paragraph thereof, the previously inserted description of the power transmission device was inserted at the wrong location, thus creating a lack of clarity of antecedent basis with regard to the term "output shaft". By the present amendment, the wording of that paragraph has been rearranged to eliminate the lack of clarity regarding the antecedent basis for "the output shaft". No new matter has been added.

In claim 39, the introductory article "An" had been omitted from line 2, and in line 18, the term "engine" has been substituted for the term "output shaft", again due to a lack of proper antecedent basis for the term "output shaft".
